Dear Sirs:

At the suggestion of Foster Stearns, of Boston, I am sending you herewith bronze medal struck to commemorate the dedication in Washington of the monument to the Dead Of The First Division, A.E.F.

This is presented to you in the name of, and with the compliments of the Society of the First Division, A.E.F., of which I have the honor to be a Director, for your collection of commemorative medals.

If there is any further information that you may desire concerning the memorial exercises, or the record of the First Division, A.E.F. I shall be very glad to be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

John H. Ames
